

Danika Rozhanica

Danika Rozhanica is a Creator beyond genre.

Her songs are a salve for the spirit, & her voice is honest, filled with an earnestness that can quiet any crowded bar. Her art & her life are entirely devoted to creating an even more beautiful, heartfelt world, where we can live in harmony.

Singing on county fair stages since the age of three, her voice shines with the light of the muses, sharing the pure balladry of Ireland's Paul Brady, the modern mystic rhythms of Sierra Ferrell, the open hearted lyricism of Ms. Lauryn Hill, & the deep reverent melodies of Rising Appalachia.

Her debut album, Bare My Heart, was cowritten, produced & recorded with Ben Potter of Katula Creek Records in Nashville at Denny Martin Music's recording studio. The album was released to a full house at the historic McFiler's Chehalis Theater, & will be featured on her upcoming tours. She's a regular at McFiler's Chehalis Theater, The Juice Box, Rhythms Coffeehouse, The Quincy, Endless Sounds Cellars & more.
